Bert moved and Aaron seconded to approve the first and second-class Liquor License for the Shrewsbury Co-op at Pierce's Store. Discussion: no concerns. Approved.

Open to the Public

No members of Public present

New Business:

Bert reported that there will be a paper pick up at the Transfer Station of forty-four (44) gaylords of mixed paper. Mixed paper costs the Town ~ $65 per ton for removal of the recyclable material. Bert indicated that this cost averages to about $1,400 for about nine months of paper collection. This cost is still less than the approximate $72 per ton for general compactor disposal and is compliant with the mandatory recycling requirements.
